Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"…I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God." (Colossians 1:25)

We are all called to evangelize – to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

Saint of the Week
MARY MAGDALENE

The Walters Art Museum, Giovanni Antonio Galli (Italian, born 1585, died 1651-1653) (Painter)

> St. Augustine called her 'apostola apostolorum,' the apostle to the apostles.

Mary, from Magdala in Galilee, was a disciple of Jesus who used her resources or wealth to help support him and his followers. The Gospel of Luke identifies Mary as the woman from whom Jesus cast out seven demons. The Gospels record that she was present at his crucifixion and burial. Today we celebrate St. Mary Magdalene, who was the first witness to the Resurrection and carried that news to the others. Because of this, St. Augustine called her "apostola apostolorum," the apostle to the apostles. On June 3, 2016, Pope Francis raised her liturgical observance from a memorial to a feast—the same rank as the observances accorded to the apostles.
